

Jailyn Brandl, in the arms of her father Buddy, watches closely as her mother Angel registers to vote early Tuesday morning with voting clerks Candi Farmer and Janice Young (right).

Hospital Mill Levy question passes; Fahrenholtz, Schneider, Kuttler, Smith elected to School Board

Greeley County voters went to the polls April 5th to elect four school board members, Horace City Council members and mayor, and to authorize the Unified Greeley County supervisors to increase the local hospital's mill levy. Voter turnout was 57%. Results are as follows.

USD #200 School Board Members
 (* top four candidates are elected)
 Jon T. Bjorklund 241

Janice Fahrenholtz 384*
 Trina Sue Kleymann 52
 Ross A. Kuttler 307*
 Scot Robertson 226
 Shanon Schneider 317*
 Jeri Farmer Smith 244*
 Cody Woelk 175

Horace City Council Members
 (* top five candidates are elected)
 Janet Crittenden 40*
 Steven C. Dunham 34*
 Robert S. Firner 32*
 William B. Gentry 35*
 Helen Jacobus 4

Kyle Thatcher 37*
Mayor of Horace City
 Nathaniel Mark Larkin 35*

Special Question:
 "Shall the Board of Supervisors of Unified Greeley County, Kansas, have the authority to levy a tax in the amount of 21 mills for the purpose of operating, maintaining, equipping and improving the Greeley County Hospital?"
Yes 359*
No 168

A large crowd of over 90 citizens attended the forum for the school board candidates held on Tuesday, March 29.